Kinder Makes Appointments to Truman State University Board of Governors

JEFFERSON CITY – Lt. Governor Peter Kinder today, serving as acting governor, appointed Karen S. Haber and Carl M. Greenwell to the Truman State University Board of Governors.

“I am thankful for Karen and Carl’s dedication to Truman State University,” said Lt. Governor Kinder. “Their commitment to the students of Truman State will help the university continually achieve excellence in education.”

Karen S. Haber (I), 52 of Kansas City has taught at the Park Hill School District for 30 years. Ms. Haber is a Spanish and French teacher at Park Hill High School. She holds a bachelor’s degree in secondary education from Southwest Missouri State University (now Missouri State University), and a master’s degree in education from UMKC. Haber’s appointment is subject to Senate confirmation for a term ending on January 1, 2014.

Carl M. Greenwell (D), 48 of Shelbina, is a partner in the law firm of Greenwell & Wilcox. Mr. Greenwell holds a bachelor’s degree in agriculture from Truman State University and a juris doctorate from the University of Daytona. Greenwell previously served on the Missouri Ethics Commission and currently serves on the board of governors of the Missouri Bar Association. Greenwell’s appointment is subject to Senate confirmation for a term ending January 1, 2011.
